The Maryland Delegation to Chicago

FREDERICK Md, May 8—In the convention which closed last night no formal resolutions were presented, as there was no committee on resolutions The resolutions offered were by individual members, consequently, although the convention was strongly in favor of Blaine, the delegates were not formally instructed for him and go unpledged Several of the successful leaders agree very nearly in dividing the delegation as follows 6 for Sherman, 2 for Blaine and remainder 8, for Grant. In explanation of the above result it is stated that while Blaine men were in the ascendancy in the convention, Cresswell and Garey controlled the nominations of delegates

The Purcell Case.

CINCINNATI May 9—Depositions have been taken of Archbishop Purcell and of Father Edward Purcell his brother, in a suit brought by the creditors of the archbishop Father Edward's deposition is to the effect that he acted solely as the business and financial agent of the archbishop for the benefit of the diocese and had done so since 1836 He said that he did a sort of banking business receiving money on deposit and paying interest. The money was not used for his or the archbishop's personal benefit but for building churches and orphan asylums for charity and to educate priests in Rome France and other places The amount of indebtedness was over $3 000 000, with the exception of a few importunate creditors who got mortgages, debts were unsecured, it being understood that the diocese was liable The archbishop has testified that none of the money from depositors was applied to any personal use.

The Primary Fight in Chicago—Probable Union of Blaine and Washburne Men

CHICAGO, May 8—The republican primaries to day are exciting the greatest interest A gentleman familiar with city elections for years declares that he has never known a better campaign in general elections The partisans of Grant Blaine and Washburne are exhibiting the greatest activity and every means known to political ward workers will be employed on both sides to win It is stated that the Blaine and Washburne men have united by agreeing that which ever develops the most strength in the convention on Monday shall get the support of the other Both sides urge the importance of their supporters turning out strong stating that Illinois will hold the balance of power in the national convention and from the closeness of strength in the state's convention the Cook county delegation of 92 will really decide who is to be the next republican presidential nominee It is stated that not a hard voting democrat in the city will be unemployed Well known voters of this class have been seen flying about the headquarters of both factions Grant men claim the third fifth [illegible] seventh eighth tenth and twelfth wards and Hyde Park with probabilities of being right Blaine and Washburne men say that they are sure of the first second fourth eleventh sixteenth seventeenth and eighteenth wards with the same probability while both Grant and anti Grant [illegible] claim without [illegible] grounds the other wards and country districts, leaving over one third in dispute

The Sugar Bill.

WASHINGTON May 8—The sugar bill which the ways and means committee to day agreed to report to the house it is understood to night is not considered by the majority of the committee as the best measure which could have been adopted but inasmuch as any system of ad valorem duties was deemed impracticable the committee decided to report it to the house without recommendation for the purpose of bringing the subject directly before the house

The Mining Laws Again

The mineral land bill agreed upon at the meeting of the Pacific coast delegates last night, was introduced in the house to-day by Belford and referred to the committee on mines and mining There is not much prospect of its obtaining final action at the hands of either house of congress this session but there is good reason to believe that no other proposition affecting mining interests can be passed in preference to this measure In fact if it be defeated the whole work of the public land commission not only concerning mineral lands, but all other classes, will probably share the same fate

Bill to Make the Railroad Companies Pay Taxes on their Lands.

Representative Daggett will shortly introduce a bill requiring all unsurveyed lands within railroad limits to be surveyed The object is to make the railroad lands subject to state taxation the practice of the companies being to refrain from asking for surveys or patents until they find purchasers Not less than 25 000 000 acres remain unsurveyed within the grant limits of railroads already constructed in California, Nevada, Utah and Colorado and nearly or quite one-half of this immense area now escapes taxation

Tariff Revision.

The house committee on ways and means this morning perfected the tariff bill The additional changes to day are wood pulp duty which is reduced from 20 per cent to 10 per cent. Salt is stricken from the bill entirely, the duty upon it therefore remains as at present The subject of sugar is put into the extra bill.

Grant to the United States.

WASHINGTON, May 8—Information has been received by cable that the Nicaraguan government has granted liberal cessions to the American government for an interoceanic ship canal company

PENDING LEGISLATION.

What Remains for Congress to do before Adjournment—Appropriation Bills.

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

WASHINGTON, May 9—This week will probably determine whether congress can adjourn by the 1st of June, in accordance with the general desire of the leaders of both parties or whether the session will be prolonged at least a fortnight later and possibly until July The present condition of the regular annual appropriation bills is as follows The pension fortification army and navy bills have become laws the Indian appropriation bill is enrolled and will be sent to the president for his approval to morrow the consular and diplomatic bill has been put through committee of conference and will reach the president for his signature by Tuesday The military academy bill is still in conference committee but will be quickly disposed of The postoffice appropriation bill has passed the house and awaits action of the senate committee Its star route clause will doubtless give rise to considerable controversy in the senate and there may very possibly be a further delay caused by various foreshadowed propositions to insert subsidy amendments similar to those which were adopted by the senate last year, but finally stricken out when the bill came from the committee of congress The river and harbor bill has been reported by the house commerce committee, and an effort will probably be made to put it through the house under a suspension of the rules If the effort fails it will be considered in committee of the whole, and an adjournment by the first of June will be practically out of the question The three most troublesome of all the appropriation bills still remain to be reported by the house committee namely the sundry civil the legislative and executive, and the general deficiency

Besides these subjects for action which must be finally disposed of by both houses before congress can disperse for the summer there are the tariff bill completed by the ways and means committee yesterday which may or may not be taken up this passage the pending session the Curtin Yocum election case which has gone over as unfinished business for this week and the marshals deficiency bill now lying on the speaker's table while in the senate there are already on hand for consideration in addition to the appropriation bills now there or soon to reach that body the Kellogg case internal revenue bill and Bayard's bill concerning the election of marshals The last named are expected to be reported back from the judiciary committee to morrow and to be brought before the senate for discussion on Tuesday or Wednesday On the whole the present outlook in regard to adjournment would seem to indicate a stronger probability that congress will be in session on the first July but the session will culminate by the 31st [illegible] and several members of the house committee on appropriations who were last week confident of adjournment by the first of June have to day withdrawn their predictions and merely express a hope of adjournment by the 15th or 20th

German Affairs

LONDON May 8—A Berlin dispatch [illegible] that Bismarck presided at a ministerial council which [illegible] the policy of modifying the [illegible] in favor of cereals

It is stated that the government will increase the military force at Hamburg as disturbances are feared

There has lately been a decided coolness between Bismarck and the Bavarian minister which is traceable to Bavaria's opposition to Bismarck's policy on the Hamburg question

The Official Gazette publishes a dispatch from Bismarck to Prussian representatives to federal states dealing with the Altona and St Pauli question He states that committees of the bundesrath have unanimously resolved to report to the council only upon the technical side of the question and to keep altogether out of consideration the constitutional aspect of the case He lays stress on the necessity of avoiding so far as possible for the sake of concord any interpretation of the constitutional rights involved Bismarck points out that it is the indisputable right of Prussia to divide any portion of her own territory and maintains that the proposed severance of St. Pauli has not been urged in the interest of Russia, as it is to the advantage of Altona that St Pauli should remain outside of Zollverein but that it was rather in the interest of Hamburg that the new customs line was proposed The bundesrath can decide upon the customs line without entering into an examination of the constitutional bearing of the question which would be likely to produce a conflict of opinion

A Boy Shoots the Father of a Girl he has Seduced—Is Acquitted of the Crime and then Marries the Girl in the Court Room—All in Old Kentucky

LOUISVILLE May 8—A special to the Courier-Journal from Mount Vernon says On the 25th day of December last William A McKenny son of W L McKenny of the county shot and killed Fred Smith at the residence of the latter six miles from Mount Vernon McKenny a young man almost beardless had seduced the daughter of Smith the evidence of which seduction was palpably seen in a babe which Smith's daughter (a pretty girl Nannie) had given birth to about six weeks before the killing McKenny was arrested and held to answer by an examining court He was indicted by the grand jury at the present term of the circuit court for wilful murder and yesterday the trial began Smith's wife and his daughter Nannie were the only witnesses of the killing According to the preponderance of testimony Smith had driven McKenny and Nannie from the house had attacked McKenny and stabbed him severely with a knife before McKenny's fatal shot Nannie has been living with McKenny since the killing and their former relations have been kept up The trial excited considerable interest and attracted a large crowd to the court house The testimony closed this morning and after the jury had been instructed by the court argument of counsel began The defense begged the jury for acquittal of the boy and promised that as a fitting finale to the prosecution William and Nannie should join hands and in the solemnity of matrimony would pledge life long devotion to each other The jury after deliberation of 20 minutes returned a verdict of not guilty Immediately after William and Nannie marched arm and arm into the court house and halting just outside the bar in front of the judge's seat Judge McClure stepped in and in a few words pronounced them man and wife The occurrence caused a considerable sensation

STARTLING STATEMENT

Report that the Pennsylvania Delegation has Bolted for Blaine—Don Cameron Gracefully Accepts the Inevitable

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

WASHINGTON May 9—It is positively asserted here to day in certain circles friendly to Blaine that a majority of the republican delegates elected in Philadelphia have recently held a secret conference and unitedly determined to cast their votes at Chicago for Blaine, that they communicated this decision to Senator Don Cameron and that he immediately went to Philadelphia and finding that he could not change it obtained a concession that it should not be made public until after the republican conventions are held in Illinois and other states this week, that it was stipulated, however, that the main facts might be privately communicated to friends of Blaine elsewhere in Pennsylvania and that congratulatory telegrams from them are now pouring in from all parts of the state. It is also asserted that Cameron, before leaving Philadelphia last Friday said if the current of events now prevailing in Pennsylvania for Blaine should continue his duty to his party would leave him no other course than to accept the inevitable and that at the proper time he would show that he could as gracefully sacrifice his personal preferences for the good of the party as any man in the state Whether or not these assertions be literally true there seems to be no doubt of their having some substantial foundation

A Kentucky Negro Imagines himself to be the Saviour—Another Pocasseth Affair.

LOUISVILLE, Ky May 8—A Clarksville special to the Courier Journal says that considerable excitement was caused yesterday by the lodgment in the Old Joy jail of Dan Lyle (colored) his wife and a negro woman named Susan Talley It seems that Dan and his wife, who have resided in civil district No 18 in this county, for some time where they have been considered quiet and inoffensive people of good character frugal and industrious had it seems recently become imbued with emotional religion which Dan has permitted to unseat his reason until he is a perfect monomaniac upon the subject He has asserted that he was the Saviour his wife the Virgin Mary and Susan Talley, who lives with them a prophetess In his zeal he has on divers occasions appeared at places of worship both for white and black people and insisted upon playing his part as a preacher, to the great disgust of all present Yesterday constables of district, ten procured a warrant for his arrest upon a charge of disturbing public worship, and went to his house to execute the same. Dan resisted furiously and assaulted constable Sanders with an axe Constable Rowle, in order to save the life of Saunders fired three shots at Lyle, one of which took effect in his right breast and another in the groin Lyle then returned to his house and barricaded the windows and doors Sheriff Mosley was sent for and immediately went to the scene of action, accompanied by policeman Murrison of this place Upon his arrival Lyle immediately surrendered Upon entering the house the officers were attacked by a smell of burned human flesh and on making search found two of Lyle's children dead with their necks broken From the appearance of the bodies decomposition having commenced they must have been dead some time

A coroner's jury was summoned and a verdict that the children came to their death by violence Parties from the neighborhood say that their impression is that the murder was instigated by the Virgin Mary and the prophetess who have both wielded a strong influence over Lyle and that he did the killing to relieve the women of the care of the children, believing that for the occasion he was a Herod Lyle's wounds are very painful but are not considered mortal

POLITICAL SPECULATION

Blaine's Friends Confident of Success—The Basis of their Claims—What Grant and Sherman Say—The Ohio Democracy and Tilden

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

WASHINGTON May 8—The results of the seven state conventions held this week are the subjects of much comment among Washington politicians to-day The Blaine men generally feel elated over them and claim that their favorite has forged ahead considerably They now claim that with the aid of the New Hampshire delegation headed by Wm E Chandler Blaine will have 40 of New England's 50 [illegible] votes or more than double what he had in 1876 They claim also that he will have Maryland Delaware and New Jersey solid and that when the tug of war comes in the convention they will have nearly all of Wisconsin's vote Grant men however claim a considerable portion of Maryland and Wisconsin votes and although chagrined at their failure to secure a solid delegation [illegible] are uneasy at the formidable revolt against the [illegible] [illegible] professional [illegible] nor [illegible] can be [illegible] combination be [illegible]

House

WASHINGTON May [illegible]—[illegible] reported the consular and diplomatic appropriation bill and it was agreed to

After a few private bills had been passed committees were called for reports

By [illegible] from the committee on patents to amend the patent laws house calendar It provides that any person who introduces into any foreign country any secret art invention or process useful and imports it to the public shall not be patented therein and at the time of application not understood in this country, may upon due proceedings obtain a patent therefor

By Felton of Georgia, from the committee on ways and means amending the sixth subdivision of section 3244 of the revised statutes so as to provide that any dealer in leaf tobacco who does not deal in leaf tobacco otherwise than to sell or to offer or consign for sale on commission to the amount exceeding 2500 pounds in any one special tax year except such leaf tobacco as they purchase or receive from farmers who have produced the same shall be required to pay for carrying on such business a special tax of $5 only

The committee of the whole by Hooker from the committee on Indian affairs, transferring the office of Indian affairs from the interior to the war department placed on house calendar

The house then took up the contested election case of Curtin vs Yocum of the twentieth district of Pennsylvania. The majority resolution declares the election to have been null and void the minority resolution that Yocum the sitting member, is entitled to his seat

A HOT DAY AT CHICAGO

The Anti-Grant Men Carry Cook County—A Forecast of the State Convention

[SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN]

CHICAGO May 8—The republican primaries to elect delegates to the Cook county convention was held to day They resulted in the election of 63 Washburne 58 Grant and 25 Blaine delegates in the 18 wards of the city and 10 Washburne 11 Grant and 4 Blaine delegates from the ten outside wards in the county Total Washburne 73 Grant 69 Blaine 29 As the remaining towns only send 20 delegates these figures insure an anti Grant convention and an anti Grant delegation of 92 to the state convention on the 19th The fight was a square Grant and anti Grant one from the start the Blaine and Washburne men having agreed to work together and to settle who should have the delegation after it was won from their common opponent Chicago never before witnessed such a sharply-contested primary election and it was remarked that never before had the democrats turned out so strong at a purely republican primary, Both parties are credited with getting in the extraordinary rapid voting In one ward 1115 votes were polled in the five hours the polls were open Grant men feel sore over their defeat but now declare that Cook county was not necessary to their winning at the state convention anyway. They try to find consolation in returns coming in from county conventions to night which give them 60 state delegates to 21 for Washburne and Blaine These (leaving out Cook county), added to figures compiled for the Times this morning, give Grant 243 to 211 for both his opponents Cook county's 92 delegates will therefore be a very important factor in deciding the complexion of Illinois at the national convention

The republican convention of Illinois will consist of 602 delegates Of these 556 have been elected, and the above division gives 243 for Grant and 313 against him The number still to be elected is 46

LITERARY AND PERSONAL

Miss Charlotte Mary Yonge the author is now 5[illegible] years old She is a woman devoted to religious work The profits of her book "The Daisy Chain," amounting to $10 000, she used in building a missionary college at Auckland N Z while a large proportion of those derived from "The Heir of Redclyffe" went to the equipment of the late Bishop Selwyn's missionary schooner The Southern Cross

Dr Sears who has charge of the Peabody educational fund in the south has given about $200 000 to support schools in Tennessee the past ten years To the normal school in Nashville he has given $12,000 annually He holds about $400 000 in Tennessee state bonds on account of the Peabody fund The state refuses to pay the interest on this sum and this is why Dr Sears determined to remove the Peabody normal school outside of the state

Of Mrs John Sherman this anecdote, said to be current in Mansfield, is told by the Cleveland Herald When a girl at school she became engaged one day in talking to several companions on the subject of marriage One of the number told what she would do in case she were married This brought out expressions from all the party, and when the future Mrs Sherman's turn came she simply said "It will be my aim to make my husband as much of a man as he can be"

THE "FULLY ENDORSED" CIPHER

The [illegible] Mercury asserts and offers to pr[illegible] [illegible] republican elector was prepa[illegible] the pub[illegible] ffice of the Western Union Telegraph Company in this city on the e[illegible] 28 November [illegible] by J N H Patrick and James K Kelly [illegible] that [illegible] labor for half an hour [illegible] The [illegible] dispatch to which was [illegible] "I fully endorse this James K Kelly" Here [illegible] a point w[illegible] the Mercury has on [illegible] same [illegible] the remarkable resemblance between the handwriting of the words "I fully endorse this James K Kelly" and the handwriting of the body of the dispatch. Many copies of the fac simile of that and many other dispatches sent from Oregon have been published and any one who likes can trace the resemblance [illegible] for himself. Moreover the same person who wrote the dispatch which Kelly "fully endorsed" also wrote the "Gabble" dispatch which assumed to commit the governor to a "decision of every point in favor of the democratic elector." But Governor Grover never wrote or sent that dispatch although it purported to come from him. Since the handwriting of both dispatches is unmistakably the same and since the handwriting of both bears so singular a resemblance to that of the words "I fully endorse this," it may be worth while for those who want to study an interesting question to get the published testimony which contains fac simile copies of the dispatches and make the comparison.

But to press this point further there is still another to be noted. The dispatches were not translated till the 14th February 1877. Until then everybody except those who had [illegible] and those who had received them was ignorant of their contents. Senator Kelly was called as a witness before the senate committee on the evening of the 30th January preceding. He was shown the dispatch in cipher to which was appended "I fully endorse this, James K Kelly," and was asked to examine and state whether that was his signature or not. He answered that it was his signature. To the next question he stated that the body of the dispatch was written by J N H Patrick and he was sure of it because there was no other person present when it was written. That is Senator Kelly was present when it was written. He and Patrick were together and there was no one else. Proceeding with his testimony Kelly says (page 333) "He (Patrick) told me the substance of it, or read it—that is he deciphered it." To the request of the committee that he (Kelly) should translate the dispatch he answered "I could not. I know the substance of it." Here we have admissions which become of great importance when it is remembered that they were made in advance of the translation of the dispatches and while it was still supposed that their contents never would be publicly known. First, Patrick and Kelly were in company when the dispatch which the latter "fully endorsed" was prepared, and no one else was present. Second, the contents of the dispatch were understood by Kelly—Patrick having deciphered it to him when it was sent. Third when it was offered to him before the senate committee he recognized it and knew the substance of it, though he couldn't translate it having left the key, as he stated, which Patrick had given him, in Oregon. These were admissions readily and incautiously made while the contents of the dispatches were still unrevealed. Fifteen days later they were translated to the senate committee and given to the public, and then it was said by Senator Kelly that he knew nothing about the contents of a dispatch which he had testified was made up in his presence and when he alone was present with Patrick, which had been deciphered to him, of which he still knew the substance when he saw the dispatch at Washington, and the key of which Patrick had left with him in Oregon where he supposed it still was. Under these circumstances there are not many who are likely to have made up their minds that he was wholly ignorant of the contents of the telegram which he "fully endorsed." That charity which covers a multitude of faults would be sorely taxed to find excuses here.

The statement by the Sunday Mercury that the dispatch was prepared by Messrs. Kelly and Patrick at the telegraph office in this city is therefore not only plausible in itself but it is borne out by Kelly's own testimony in the clearest manner. That testimony is the more direct and valuable from the fact that the ciphers had not yet been translated, and there was no reason to suppose they ever would be. The time given by the Mercury namely the evening of the 28th November 1876, coincides with the testimony of Kelly himself who states that after having gone to San Francisco he, upon consultation with friends there returned overland to Oregon and "got back to Portland on the 28th November." Also that he first saw Patrick on that day "on the down train from Salem." Reaching Portland the dispatch was prepared that same evening, Kelly fully endorsed it and it was sent to 15 Gramercy park. Patrick who sailed for San Francisco on the Elder leaving Portland on the 2d December telegraphed from that city to Kelly on the 5th asking the question "Will the programme be carried out?" Answer, "Few we may presume, would be likely to suppose that Patrick and Kelly would come down from Salem together hold a consultation on the way and go to the telegraph office together in the evening make up this extraordinary dispatch and send it away that Patrick could go back to San Francisco and telegraph Kelly, as above, in regard to the programme and require an answer, yet all the while the latter being in ignorance of what had been done and what the programme was. Though it is difficult to assign positive limits to human credulity this really requires too vast an effort.

EXPLANATORY

We made the statement last Saturday morning that the republican candidate for clerk in Linn county had been "wounded in the house of his friends" which some of our readers at Albany have very much misconstrued, as will be seen by the following dispatch:

ALBANY, May 8, 1880

Your article to day [illegible] under the head [illegible] state [illegible] does great injustice to Mr N Baum republican candidate for county clerk [illegible] There has been [illegible] republicans [illegible] unfair means [illegible] of our [illegible] we are surprised that [illegible] appear in THE OREGONIAN [illegible] the injustice [illegible] J H [illegible] Young [illegible] W [illegible] William Ketchum H H Hewitt [illegible]

Whatever we could by no means be [illegible] of Mr Baum [illegible] clerk whom we know to be a man well [illegible] for [illegible] which he is nominated [illegible] published at Albany to read [illegible] the party had [illegible] and [illegible] used [illegible] opposition of some who would otherwise have worked for Mr Baum's election. Neither Mr Baum nor the [illegible] signed the above dispatch [illegible] responsible for the [illegible] taken and [illegible] those who are [illegible] Albany and we hope [illegible] is a very worthy man [illegible] action [illegible]

AN UNEXPECTED OBSTACLE

From a dispatch from Victoria published on Saturday it would appear by no means certain that work is to begin at once on the Canadian Pacific railway. The prospect had appeared bright indeed till this new turn of affairs was announced. A contract exceeding $9,000,000 had been entered into with M Onderdonk backed by capitalists in New York, to push construction of the Pacific division, an appropriation of $1,000,000 had been made by the Dominion [illegible] for the present season's work and [illegible] the hopes long entertained by our British Columbia neighbors were in a fair way of being consummated. Such was the situation as it appeared up to a few days ago but dispatches have since indicated that a serious obstacle has arisen which threatens still further delay in the commencement of operations on the Pacific division. The following statements may be presented in explanation.

When British Columbia entered into union with the eastern provinces of Canada one of the terms of union stipulated that "the colonial government should convey to the Dominion a strip of land not exceeding 20 miles on each side of the line of railway to be appropriated in such manner as the Dominion might deem advisable in furtherance of construction of said railway." In consideration of the land so to be conveyed the Dominion government agreed to pay to the colony the sum of $100,000 per annum in perpetuity. For eight years this annual subsidy has been paid. When the route from Burrard inlet via the valley of the Fraser was selected, after years spent in surveys the Dominion found that the lands lying contiguous to the road for a great portion of the distance were mountainous and of no practical value for agricultural or other economical purposes. Their confidential agent, J W Trutch, was therefore instructed to ask from the province that "such lands as are found to be thus valueless may be eliminated from the area of the belt of 40 miles above described and that an equal area suitable for farming or other valuable purposes be selected elsewhere in the province in lieu thereof."

Although the Dominion was not entitled to ask this by the literal terms of union it would seem that the request is not an unreasonable one. Sir John Macdonald the head of the present Canadian government was the minister with whom the original agreement for an overland railway was negotiated. Before this agreement could be carried out his government was overthrown and the "Grit" party with Mr McKenzie as premier came into power. Their hostility to British Columbia was displayed in every form through their whole tenure of office and a continuous series of evasions, subterfuges and broken promises marked their course towards the remote colony. The result was almost complete prostration of all the agricultural manufacturing and mining interests of the province. Two thirds of all the farmers on the mainland, although rich in cattle and grain, were bankrupt in money and credit. Exhaustion of the mines rendered their produce valueless through want of a market. The merchants of the upper country were unable in consequence to pay their indebtedness in Victoria and the whole commercial fabric seemed on the brink of collapse. One hope alone remained namely, that a change of government would realize their expectations of a Canadian railway.

Upon the return of Sir John Macdonald to office, it was evident that this hope had a good foundation. Entering upon office with a large working majority in parliament, he at once declared the construction of the western end of the railway a fundamental part of his policy, against the entire force of the opposition and the loudly expressed fears and doubts of many even of his own followers, he never wavered a moment but with a chivalrous feeling which seems to be a part of his character, he staked the existence of his ministry upon the question, and carried the necessary appropriation by a strict party vote at the session which has just closed. Naturally he might expect that British Columbia, for which he had risked so much, would make a suitable return by doing all in its power to ease the burden which he must carry for several years to come. And indeed he is said to have put forward as argument to convince his own friends the assertion that the public lands which the province would undoubtedly grant, would in time become sufficiently valuable to repay the entire outlay which might be incurred.

The recent action of the colonial ministry shows that this expectation will not be realized. A bill which simply embodies the strict terms of union, has been introduced by the leader of the government and a minute of the executive council in answer to Mr Trutch's demands not only declines to accede to them at present, but complains of injury and loss already sustained by withdrawal from settlement of island public lands and asks for guarantees for continuous work on the mainland railway, and a promise of early commencement of the island section.

The public lands which have thus become a bone of contention are mostly situated east of the Cascade range of mountains and without a railway to assist in transporting their produce to the sea are completely worthless. For years the annual receipts from sales of lands have not sufficed to pay the expenses of the surveyor general's office. In many portions of the upper country the farming population has been gradually dwindling away and in all parts the only thing which has retained many in the colony has been the prospects of railway construction. Should this be stopped there would be an immediate exodus from the agricultural districts of at least one half of the present settlers. But if the lands were turned over to the Dominion government a regular system of surveys and immigration would at once be inaugurated and many of the five or six thousand men who will be needed upon the railway would become permanent settlers of the soil.

Under these circumstances it seems a suicidal policy for the provincial government to refuse the demands of the Canadian ministry. The present kindly feelings of the latter towards the colony must assuredly be changed by such treatment and if railway construction proceeds at all it will go on with such lukewarmness and [illegible] that no [illegible] can [illegible] its [illegible] believing [illegible] development of the Pacific coast [illegible] with [illegible] the day may be [illegible] and [illegible] a new era of prosperity may dawn upon our British br[illegible]

The republican primaries [illegible] to day [illegible] were [illegible] as if the [illegible] depended on the result were [illegible] That [illegible] the Illinois state convention against [illegible] though the third term boomers still [illegible] to claim the state, probably on the [illegible] the delegates who are for Washburn [illegible] to Grant and thus make a majority against Blaine. But the support which Washburne receives is the result of the most emphatic protest which has been offered against the third term. It is support which comes mainly from the German population of the country and will go to any other candidate sooner than Grant—even though Washburne himself is numbered for the present among Grant's supporters. But [illegible] it is known that Grant cannot get the solid south and that the New York and Pennsylvania delegations will certainly break his nomination would not be possible even with the aid of the delegation from Illinois.

VERDICT OF GUILTY

The Jury in the Case of State vs. George Collins Returns a Verdict of Murder in the Second Degree

The trial of George Collins for the murder of Clark Hamilton on Molalla prairie on Tuesday Feb 4 which has been on trial at Oregon City for several days past terminated Saturday afternoon. The names of the jurors empaneled to try the case have already been published. A large number of witnesses were examined during the progress of the trial and every possible effort was made by the defendant's counsel to secure his acquittal or a [illegible] of the [illegible] Attorney [illegible] prosecuted the case with [illegible] and left no stone unturned to bring the prisoner to condign punishment.

At the close of the argument [illegible] Saturday afternoon Judge Bellinger delivered his charge to the jury after which they retired. After deliberating for one hour and a quarter the jury came in with a verdict of guilty of murder in the second degree. The verdict was read by the clerk and was received by Collins without the betrayal of the least emotion.

A majority of the jury after retiring were in favor of a verdict of murder in the first degree seven of the jurors on the first ballot standing that way while three voted for murder in the second degree one for manslaughter and one for acquittal. The second ballot resulted in a verdict as found.

Sentence was deferred until next Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock when a motion for a new trial will be made by the defendant's attorneys.

WEATHER PROBABILITIES

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

WASHINGTON May 10—12:30 A M—For Pacific coast ... barometer westerly wind possibly numerous rains in middle and northern portions

Astoria Cornet Band.—A correspondent writing from Astoria sends the following: The Astoria cornet band now consists of the following performers: George Lamber leader and first E flat soprano; Henry M... Middleton ... B flat cornet; John Hurlbar second B flat cornet; A Ostrander baritone; John Halle first alto; S Murray second alto; Chas Kinner trombone; Fred ... tuba; Walter Locke bass drum; Frank Dal... side drum; W... Collins cymbals. The band under the direction of Mr Lambert has during the last month made encouraging progress and at the present time can compete favorably with any band in the state.

Painful Accident.—From the East Portland ... it is learned that Edith Chamberlain a little daughter of Mr John Chamberlain residing on Fourteenth street between G and H had the misfortune to fall on the business end of a needle which entered and became thoroughly imbedded in her leg just below the knee. This left a painful wound but the nature of the accident was not ascertained until the following day when a physician was sent for. He soon discovered what was the matter and extracted the foreign body successfully. The wound is now healing rapidly.

Torn Down.—Charles Logus proprietor of what has long been known as the old brewery building in East Portland on the northwest corner of L and Fourth streets has acceded to the demands of adjacent property holders by tearing down that old structure and proposes to replace it immediately by a handsome two story building fifty feet on Fourth street by 80 feet on L. The ground floor will be arranged as stores. The adjoining building on Fourth street occupied by a saloon by John Went, will be moved 11 feet north and 5 feet west, the latter being necessary through its encroaching on the sidewalk.

Death of George L Rines.—After a lingering sickness Mr George L Rines son of John Rines departed this life Saturday at the residence of his father. The deceased was born in the city of Portland Maine and was aged 24 years and 10 months. Mr Rines was a printer by trade and a very steady and industrious young man. He leaves a wife and one child and a large circle of relatives and friends to mourn his departure. The funeral will take place this (Monday) afternoon at 2 o'clock from the residence of Mr John Rines on Clay street between Front and Water.

Recovering.—Jim Pang and Ah Chung the two celestials who had a very serious misunderstanding Friday night about a woman are getting along well, the recovery of both being assured. Saturday the pistol ball was extracted from Jim Pang's leg and the wound dressed. It is healing rapidly and the probabilities are that he will soon be able to use the limb. Ah Chung's head which received such rough handling, is also in a fair way to recover. The defendants are both in jail. To day the charges will be investigated if the prisoners are able to be present.

Estimates for Improvements.—W S Chapman, city surveyor has just completed estimates for the improvement of the following streets: North Fifteenth street excavation 12,314 cubic yards, embankment, 1846 cubic yards, sidewalks, 4456 lineal feet, crosswalks 1584 lineal feet, bridging, 400 lineal feet. Columbia street excavation, 26 cubic yards, sidewalks, 112 lineal feet. North Eleventh street, excavation 594 cubic yards, embankment, 62 cubic yards, sidewalks, 448 lineal feet, crosswalks, 144 lineal feet.

Adjustable Pontoon.—Knott Bros have made one very necessary improvement to the ferry slip at the foot of Stark street in the way of an adjustable pontoon. The pontoon is made so that it adjusts itself to any stage of water—rising and falling with the river. By means of such an improvement the ferryboat can effect a landing even at a high stage of water, without difficulty and with perfect safety. The sharpness of the grade at the foot of the street is also materially lessened by the pontoon.

Broke her Shaft.—The steamer McCully on her way to Corvallis on Saturday with a hundred tons of railroad material when near Butteville discovered her shaft was broken. No other damage was sustained. She will immediately be unloaded and brought back to Portland. The steamer will be delayed but a few days as she had an extra steel shaft on hand which will immediately be put in place.

Steamboat Machinery.—Mr Winch is superintending the placing in position of all the necessary machinery for use at the O R & N Co's new boneyard about half a mile below Weidler's mill. The barge Columbia Chief was used for the purpose of taking the machinery down. The yard is enclosed for a distance of 1000 feet and a width of 200 feet.

Excursionists.—Saturday the west side train brought down about 200 passengers—principally ladies and children—from Corvallis and way stations who came to the metropolis to see the sights. The excursionists arrived about 11 o'clock and left on the afternoon train.

In Search of Health.—Rev Arthur N Wixon, of the Episcopal Church in East Portland has left for the Sound in search of better health. He will remain absent a month or six weeks during which time Rev Wm Daly of Portland will officiate at morning service the evening service being omitted.

R. R. Material.—The barkentine North Bend has arrived here and is moored at the foot of Morrison street. The vessel brought 550 tons of railroad iron and a lot of dump carts. This material is for the Willamette Valley railroad and will be sent forward at once.

Oregonians Coming.—A special dispatch to this paper from Carlin May 8th says: The following overland passengers passed Carlin to day to arrive in San Francisco to morrow: Mrs J E Holt and son Eugene City Oregon; S Harris Portland Oregon.

Patents.—Patents have just been issued to J J H Parrott Salem for a patent double tree; to A L Simonds of Idaho City for a preparation for coating ingot moulds; to W Sims of Stayton for patent waterwheel.

Bethel Home Lodge.—Bethel Home lodge No 1 of International Good Templars will meet this (Monday) evening at 7:30 in Bethel hall, corner of D and Third streets.

With Railroad Iron.—The ship Gatherer which sailed from Philadelphia on May 3d for Portland brings a full cargo of iron for Northern Pacific Railroad Company.

Public Speaking.—Hon M C George republican nominee for congress will speak in Portland on Wednesday May 12.

The lights of the separate rooms will be under control of the passengers on the inside and the steward on the outside. All the rooms are fitted up with

The steering gear is an attachment from the freight hoister but with self acting improvements. The elevators for discharging cargoes are new and also the running engines at the ports so that the truck loaded with freight runs from the lower hold on to the dock entirely by steam. Head lights and dock lights are also run by an electric machine.

The electric lights were lit early yesterday afternoon and the little horseshoes burned brightly and pleasantly until late in the night when the guests went ashore. There was dancing on the lower deck with a supper forward and a promenade band on the main deck. The ship was crowded and there were present many notables from the Pacific coast, including Miss Annie Pixley, who sang a number of California songs from her play of M'liss to the great delight of the westerners, who showered her with compliments. The ship's officers are:—Commodore F Bolles, commander; W H De Wolf first officer, H E Ackly second officer, and J L T Walters, steward. J C Henderson, who has been constructing engineer goes with the ship as chief engineer. Mr Alfred L Stokes general eastern passenger agent, was on board, as was also Captain Biles of Oregon, who told some remarkable stories of the resources of his state.

THE OLYMPIC CLUB MATINEE.

The entertainment given by the Olympic club on Thursday evening was repeated on Saturday afternoon. The attendance was large and fashionable. But few and very slight changes were made in the programme, and as on the occasion of its first presentation no circumstance occurred to mar the entertainment. Considering that the gentlemen who compose the club engage in gymnastic exercises simply for the strength and sport to be derived from them their performances were remarkable. The trapeze act by Messrs Maran and Brenckle was especially admirable for its grace and daring. Miss Tuthill who appeared the last time before her departure for the east recited "The Diver" with splendid realistic force and propriety. Miss Belle DuBois sang in the first part a waltz song and so delighted the audience with its lovely graces that she was heartily encored and responded with the ballad "Twilight brings my heart to Thee". Her voice is not adapted to that sort of song whose charm lies in expression of feeling. Excellent as is her execution, she lacks that soul of melody, that sympathetic power which gives to the ballads loved by all their warmth and prime delight. An operatic selection given by Miss DuBois in the second part, was much more creditable to her and won merited applause.

The net proceeds of the two entertainments to the club were about $600.

THE NARROW GAUGE RAILWAY.

A Full Account of what it is Proposed to Do—Routes and Cost—Various Items

Mr William Reid having been absent from the city for some days and returned on Saturday evening, an OREGONIAN reporter waited on him yesterday for information as to the movements of the Narrow Gauge Railway Company which he represents.

Mr Reid's visit up the valley with the company's two engineers Mr Morris and Mr Fast with ... contractor Mr Montgomery was for the purpose of locating the route of the road on the east and west sides. The present route determined upon this year is from North Brownsville which place the party visited last Tuesday north easterly to Lebanon crossing ... two miles from ... the ... west side of the ... thence across the ... preceeding to ... what is called the ... The road thereafter runs northerly to the ... which it ... Waldo hills and ... down to Howell's prairie along the East Pudding river ... from ... the road goes to the ... school house which ... Molalla country. The rest of the road will run westerly through ... Woodburn and from that point run across the French prairie to Rae's ferry via Hardings and ... to St Paul's Catholic mission. Great difficulties were experienced by the engineers in securing a crossing of the Willamette river from the French prairie ... after ... the most favorable ... crossing will ... ferry on the east side and ... Mrs ... quarter ... has at last been finally determined upon. From Fulquartz landing the road will run westerly through the Harper farm and then join the west division coming from King's valley. The two trains will then ... proceed direct to Portland which is twenty four and a half miles from the proposed junction. From the latter place no difficulties present themselves until the road reaches what is called the Chehalem gap eight miles from Portland which is over 400 feet above the level of the French prairie. Considerable cutting will have to be made at this gap but it is believed by the engineers that a grade of fifty three feet to the mile will be obtained. Following down the Chehalem gap to Middleton the road passes through a broken but not very difficult country and from there to Sucker lake at Oswego no engineering difficulties present themselves, an excellent grade having been thus far found. From Oswego to a point almost opposite or above Milwaukie however Elk mountain stands in the way of getting to South Portland. This mountain cannot be got over or crossed in any other way than by a tunnel or deep and long excavations of rock at that place and hence it was proposed to the engineers to recross the Willamette river and go on to East Portland instead of South Portland. But the directors are opposed to this course unless absolutely compelled to do so. Further surveys will be made of this mountain to determine accurately the cost of getting through it by tunnel or otherwise and if successful the road will pass by the foot of the new cemetery White and Rer houses and to South Portland. The terminus here cannot of course be decided until the directors know whether Elk mountain can be inexpensively got over.

The west side branch or division of this company has been located from King's valley via Lewisville to Dallas to which latter point the company's Dayton branch will be completed and in running operation within twenty days. From Dayton to the east side junction is only five miles where both trains will go into Portland.

The number of miles to be built this year so far as we can ascertain are fifty miles from French Prairie on the east side and twenty miles from Smithfield's on the west side to a point near the gap into King's valley. This will necessitate fifteen miles being built from Dallas southerly and we understand operations will be commenced by the contractor on these 15 miles when the extension to Dallas is completed—that is about the 1st of June. The work from Silverton is now being proceeded with and whenever the location of the bridge across the Willamette at French Prairie is determined upon a double force will be placed thereon to work easterly and join those now grading from Silverton. The North Bend has arrived from San Francisco with 400 additional tons of iron for that purpose.

Mr Reid's party and engineers made a careful examination of the condition of the Dayton and Sheridan and Dayton and Dallas branches which the Oregon Railway Company limited recently purchased from the Willamette Valley Railroad Company. These two branches are now free of all debts or mortgages, except a disputed sum of $4000 of costs of court and the liability for which is now being determined by Judge Deady and the road, are worked and now owned entirely (and not as lessees) by the Oregon Railway Company, limited. Trains are running daily thereon but the cultivation in the country through which these two branches run has increased over 100 per cent since M Gaston built the road. The Oregon Railway Company has determined to convert the branches into first class roads. With that view Mr Reid has ordered the entire line from Dayton to Sheridan and Dayton to Dallas to be ballasted all over and the road ditched, additional ties put in and the strength of the bridges and trestleworks increased to double their present capacity. New passenger and freight cars have been ordered and are expected to reach Portland within two months for these branches and the extension to Lewisville via Monmouth, the purpose of the new owners being to make the road in first class condition. No resolution has been come to as to whether it is possible to reach Portland this fall but the Scottish directors have cabled that if the terminus is to be fixed at Portland they are prepared to supply the funds necessary to get the road to this city as soon as it is possible to do so or to whatever other point the terminus may be located.

The mode by which the narrow gauge company raises funds to build its railways in Oregon is somewhat different from the mode hitherto adopted in building American railroads. The approximate cost of the road and its equipment is first carefully ascertained and instead of mortgaging the road bed and rolling stock to the full extent or cost of construction the Oregon Railway Co's road will only be mortgaged to the extent of one half of the true cost of construction and equipment, and the other half necessary has been and will be hereafter raised by assessments on the stock held by the stockholders in Scotland. Besides which the stockholders are made personally liable pro rata for the first mortgage bonds over this road to the extent of $6000 per mile in addition to the road bed and rolling stock and franchises mortgaged so that if at any time sufficient earning should not be obtained to pay interest on the mortgage bonds the stockholders will be personally liable for that interest yearly which however with good securities, is obtained at 6 per cent and the bonds issued and sold at par instead of at a discount as is commonly the case. The mortgage indebtedness over this narrow gauge road will therefore not exceed $6000 per mile when completed while the actual and true cost of construction and first class equipment of the two divisions of the road from the head of the Willamette valley to Portland on both sides of the valley will be about $12,000 per mile, and be nearly 200 miles in length.

We gave the names of the directors and officers in Oregon in THE OREGONIAN on Monday last and we now give the names of the directors and managers in Scotland taken from the official list who are the same gentlemen who own and control the Oregon and Washington Mortgage Bank of Portland.

Scottish Directors—The right honorable the earl of Airlie K T chairman house of lords London; William Lowson Esq of Balthayock; Thomas Hunter ... Managing director in Scotland—William Lowson Esq of Balthayock. Auditor—David Myles Reform street, Dundee. Bankers—British Linen Co of Scotland. Head office—147 Murraygate Dundee.

The enterprise is thus purely a Scotch concern and we believe was organized by Mr Reid in consequence of the legislature of the state of Oregon with the view of encouraging the investment of foreign capital in enterprises like that now proposed having passed in 1878 a law giving foreign corporations the same powers and ... for ... Mr Brenner's New and Elegant Hotel Open for the Reception of Guests—Public Inspection of the House—Description of the House

A good deal of complaint has from time to time been made about the hotels of Portland but the truth is the patronage has not been sufficient to justify such outlays of money in fitting up and running such hotels as are to be found in the large cities of the east. Within a few years past however Portland has made rapid strides toward metropolitan size and the ... first class hotel in all respects has become imperative. This demand we believe will be met fully by the house just opened to the public by Mr J H Brenner, ... the elegant name of Esmond.

PUBLIC INSPECTION

... having the ... an ... of ... basement ... on the formal opening of the new hotel for the reception of guests ... the general inspection of the public. It was announced ... that the hotel would be formally opened to the inspection of visitors between the hours of 8 and 10 P M on Saturday. Soon after the hour mentioned crowds of ladies and gentlemen ... the leading and wealthy citizens of Portland began to pour into the brilliantly illuminated and elegantly furnished and appointed hotel. For over two hours ... of the building was thronged with visitors. Every nook and corner of the Esmond was critically inspected by those ... of curious and admiring eyes. That the hotel with its rich furnishings and complete appointments came fully up to or surpassed public anticipation was most abundantly evident by the exclamations of surprise which were heard on all sides.

THE BUILDING

The Esmond is a large three story brick building with a basement occupying 100 feet square on the east side of First street the south side being bounded by Morrison street. Bay windows of handsome architectural styles open on the front and ... of the building on the second and third stories. With rich lace curtains and tapestry hangings these windows when lighted up at night impart a very handsome and attractive appearance to the whole building and serves to remind one forcibly of the Palace Hotel in San Francisco though on a much smaller scale.

Last fall the stone foundation of the Esmond having been finished the masonry work was commenced. However the owners of the new building—Messrs C P Church and Samuel Coulter—were desirous of having the work done in a very substantial manner and so it progressed rather slowly. The cost alone of the building is in the vicinity of $40 000. Mr H Brenner the lessee and proprietor of the Esmond has expended about the sum of $30 000 in fitting up furnishing and making the accomodations and appointments perfect. Some adequate idea of the elegance of the establishment may be formed from the above expenditure. All the latest improvements have been included in fitting up the Esmond and nothing essential to the comfort, pleasure and convenience of guests has been omitted.

The business office which is to the right of the main entrance near the southwest corner of the building is presided over by Mr John C Morrison, who is well and favorably known in the hotel business. Mr Morrison came from The Dalles, where he was connected with the Cosmopolitan in that city. He was formerly connected with the Stine House at Walla Walla. He has had much experience and is a very genial and accommodating gentleman.

The office and hall is hard finished with wash rooms and the elevator in the rear. The elevator which will be one of the greatest conveniences to the guests, is not ready for service but will be complete and in working order in about two weeks. To the right of the office as you enter the hotel are the bar, billiard and reading rooms, which are elegantly fitted up. The main stairway is situated to the left of the business office as also are the dining rooms. The Esmond contains 91 rooms 28 of them suites all of which are richly furnished with body Brussel carpet and black walnut furniture, and splendidly lighted with gas. The main dining room is large and finished in elegant style and taste. Just to the rear of the main dining room is situated the family and ladies dining room.

The kitchen may be truthfully characterized as a perfect model of order and cleanliness. Mr H Bertrand is the chief cook, and presides over the culinary department with the air of one who thoroughly understands his business. He recently came from San Francisco where he was connected with the Cosmopolitan hotel. Mr Bertrand has four assistant cooks. The chief steward is Mr E T Davis, who for some years held a similar position at the International hotel in Virginia City. Four French waiters assist him.

The main parlor is large and airy opens by bay windows on Front street, is elegantly furnished, and is supplied with a grand piano. Every room is connected with the main office by electric call bells. The entire building is heated by patent radiators which maintain a steady, uniform heat.

VISITORS

During the evening it is estimated that at least 5000 persons called and inspected the Esmond and it is wholly needless to add went away more than pleased. Mr H Brenner, the genial host, Mrs Brenner, the hostess, and their son Prof J H Brenner were very attentive and courteous to the visitors and did the honors of the evening in excellent style, making all feel at home.

RECEPTION BANQUET

After the reception was over a splendid wine luncheon was spread in the dining hall at which were present a number of invited guests. Speeches and toasts were given and responded to in which the Esmond and the press were not forgotten.

The Esmond is now ready for the reception of guests. Up to the present time many of the rooms have been engaged and a large number of guests have registered their names.

A GOOD THING.

German Syrup is the special prescription of Dr A Boschee a celebrated German Physician and is acknowledged to be one of the most fortunate discoveries in medicine. It quickly cures Coughs, Colds and all Lung trouble of the severest nature, removing as it does the cause of the affection and leaving the parts in a strong and healthy condition. It is no experimental medicine but has stood the test of years giving satisfaction in every case which its rapidly increasing sale every season confirms. Two million bottles sold annually. Beware of medicines of similar names lately introduced. Boschee's German Syrup was introduced in the United States in 1868 and is now sold in every town and village in the civilized world. Three doses will relieve any ordinary cough. Price 75 cents. Sample bottle 10 cents.

PACIFIC COAST NEWS.

CALIFORNIA

A Disgusting Family Row

SAN FRANCISCO May 9—The quarrels of the Bird brothers relative to titles to certain lots of land near the Oakland and Alameda town ship line culminated yesterday in the probable fatal shooting of Urban P Bird. Mrs Haarburg, sister of the Bird brothers, yesterday afternoon quarreled with one of the men on Geo Bird's side of the premises in Alameda. Urban Bird and the woman went to the rear end of the lot and assaulted and drove off a man who was there. She then attacked Harry Bird, who was sitting in the middle of the lots. She struck him and applied approbrious epithets when he went off and procured a shotgun, she in the meantime having got a pistol. A general skirmish then took place when George Wilkinson came up and took the gun from Harry Bird and fired at Urban, the charge striking him in the head, inflicting injuries that may prove fatal. Wilkinson was put in jail. George Bird and his party barricaded themselves in a barn and are prepared to stand a siege.

The San Francisco Charter to be Tested

The election commissioners and new city hall commissioners to-day adopted resolutions authorizing the employment of Chinese to test the legality of the McClure charter.

Assessment

SAN FRANCISCO May 8—Crown Point levies an assessment of 50 cents.

Malicious Persecution

On account of several withdrawals of bondsmen of Treasurer Shaber and Sheriff Desmond these officers were cited to appear before the commissioners having power to pass upon bonds, consisting of the mayor, auditor and Judge Halsey of the superior court, and to show cause why their bonds should not be declared insufficient. The commissioners heard the cases to-day and dismissed both. They also passed resolutions to the effect that the withdrawals of the bonds of these officials were prompted by malice and a desire to annoy them and to force them out of their positions, and that under the circumstances the board would extend to them every protection to which they are entitled in equity.

Shocking Suicide

SAN JOSE May 8—This afternoon Andy M Ogier, a farmer residing about 20 miles north of this city, killed himself in his barn by shooting himself through the head. The cause for it is supposed to have been financial trouble. He went into the barn and sat down, and putting the muzzle of a gun into his mouth reached the trigger and touched it off. Half of his head was torn off and blood and brains scattered around him.

WASHINGTON TERRITORY.

Disastrous Collision off Cape Flattery

PORT TOWNSEND May 9—The barkentine C L Taylor, which left for San Francisco on the 5th, lumber laden from Port Madison, has just sailed into this bay with her jibboom, foretopmast and bow sprit gone, head gear destroyed and badly injured altogether. She reports having been run into yesterday forenoon by the bark Rainier outside of Cape Flattery. Capt Bergman considers that the Rainier was at fault. The Taylor was damaged about $4 000. The Rainier is reported coming in about as badly injured as the Taylor. The revenue cutter is steaming up to go to her assistance. No lives lost.

ARIZONA.

Victoria Again Heard From.

TUCSON May 8—Victoria in a fight yesterday, killed Geo H Stevens and about 20 families of Indians who were living on his ranch. Victoria is trying to reach San Carlos reservation to get the wives of his warriors, and if possible reinforcements.

The Indian Situation in Arizona.

SAN FRANCISCO May 8—A Tucson dispatch says Captain Kramer with 28 men of the 6th cavalry attacked Victoria's band, ninety strong, near Rock Creek canyon yesterday. Beackman's command of sixteen cavalry and twenty eight Indian scouts are momentarily expected to reinforce Kramer. When the courier left Kramer had several men wounded. Reinforcements are on the way from Camp Thomas and Camp Grant. A decisive engagement is expected to morrow.

WEST INDIES.

Tariff Change

PORTO RICO May 2—The budget proposes to abolish the 6 per cent bounty on goods imported direct from producing countries and to reduce the present import duties of 50 per cent.

Emancipation in Cuba.

HAVANA, May 8—The Gazette publishes the law for the abolition of slavery in Cuba which becomes in force from this date, together with the regulations for the application of the law. Regulations have been formulated by order of the governor general and approved by the council of administration but are subject to the approval of the home government.

NOTES AND NEWS

Gov Cornell of New York has vetoed a bill taxing the capital of foreign banks.

Robert G Stuart has been confirmed as receiver of public moneys at Olympia.

A steady flow of population into Southern and Eastern Idaho is reported. It exceeds anything which the territory has before known.

Thus far America has contributed about $4 000 000 toward the relief of starving people in Ireland. The contributions have been in money, provisions and clothing.

A dispatch from Philadelphia says that of the delegates from that city to the Chicago convention, numbering twenty four in all, only one, M S Quay, personally prefers Grant.

The size of the San Francisco Chronicle has been reduced. The management had previously reduced printers wages. Evidently it finds it necessary to retrench since fortune began to run against it.

Ex Gov Newell, of New Jersey, recently appointed governor of Washington territory, will not leave his home at Bordentown for the Pacific coast for several weeks, having important private business to transact.

At the municipal election at Virginia Nev last week the republicans carried mayor, assessor, treasurer and three or four aldermen; the democrats got chief of police, tax collector, city attorney and one alderman.

The New York Sun, discussing the Chicago outlook, comes to the conclusion that if all the delegates vote as they please Grant will be defeated, but if fifty or sixty of them who are really against him vote for him under instructions he will be a candidate.

On Tuesday May 3 Senator Slater presented a petition signed by a dozen bankers and three thousand other citizens of Oregon praying for an appropriation of $250 000 for erection of a breakwater at the mouth of the Columbia river in accordance with the plans of Col Gillespie.

The house committee on Indian affairs have agreed by a vote of seven to three to recommend the passage by the house of a bill to transfer the Indian bureau from the interior to the war department, with amendment that transfer shall be made on July 1 1881 instead of 1881 as originally provided.

The San Francisco Examiner ridicules the attempt to impeach Mayor Kalloch. It says the supervisors don't care [illegible] Kalloch's language, for they use worse every day; they don't care for his blasphemy, for they paid Bob Ingersoll a dollar apiece to hear worse blasphemy.

The residence of Casper Hinkle, situated two miles west of Needy, was burned last Wednesday. The building caught fire from a pile of brush burning near it.

Eugene Guard: From present appearances Lane county will have a bountiful harvest this year. From every locality [illegible] encouraging reports. Much more grain has been sown than usual heretofore, and no fear need be entertained of a possible repetition of last year's disaster.

A log found adrift in the straits was discovered to have a live artillery shell imbedded in it as it was about to be sawed the other day at the Sayward mill, so says the Victoria Standard.

J Meeker of Puyallup offers three premiums of about $100 each for the best sugar beet raising, embracing the largest yield, the best results for sugar production and the greatest economy in the culture. The test must embrace at least one acre of land.

The iron enterprise near Port Townsend is reported as improving rapidly. A wharf is built, buildings are being erected, grading and road cutting are going on, and wood is being cut for coal—all indicating business and confidence on the part of the iron company.

At the Tacoma town election a few days ago the old trustees were all re-elected. Following is the vote received by each of the candidates: Theodore Hosmer 95, David Lister 83, H C Bostwick 91, Stephen M Nolan 80, Sam Wilkeson jr 70, M J Cogswell 40, J S Walker 58, scattering 10.

Olympia Transcript May 8: Yesterday over seven tons of oysters were shipped over the O & T railroad for Portland and San Francisco. Over six tons were shipped one day last week, besides almost every day of the season one or two tons are shipped to Portland. But one or two large shipments this season will follow that of yesterday, although small amounts will continue to be forwarded for sometime yet.

The Boston Wool Market.

BOSTON, May 8—Sales during the past week amount to only 739 900 pounds, of which 775 000 were domestic, the smallest for many years. Most of manufacturers are out of the market, which has become completely demoralized, and prices again declined from 2c to 3c per pound on nearly all grades. Quotations are however for the most part nominal, as it is impossible to give reliable prices for any kind of wool. Domestic wool attracts but little attention. Montevideo and Australia wools on market are considered cheap. Sales of washed fleeces are the smallest for a long time. Not a pound of California fleeces was sold this week. Most of California wool on the market is very undesirable. The fall clip of new has not come forward except in small lots.

Review of the N Y Market for Last Week

(SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN)

NEW YORK May 9—Business in most departments of trade has been moderate during the past week, the demand for merchandise having slacked, as the conviction has forced its way upon the mind of the mercantile public that trading has been overdone and that a further decline in values would seem to be more probable than any improvement. There has been a decline in tendency in many departments, while in some prices show considerable decline for the week.

Breadstuffs—Unsettled and lower and movements mainly speculative.

Provisions—Much the same as heretofore noted. No demand either for export or speculation.

Rio Coffee and Sugars—Somewhat better demand at easier prices.

Pork—Moderate demand at last quotations.

Quicksilver—42c.

Hides—Better demand but somewhat held in check by firmness of holders.

Leather—Dull.

Turpentine—Unchanged.

Raisins—Neglected.

EASTERN FREIGHTS AND MARKETS

SPECIAL DISPATCH TO THE OREGONIAN

NEW YORK May 8—Dullness in California freighting business still continues notably via Cape Horn and the Isthmus and there is no prospect of any immediate improvement, although advices from San Francisco are more cheering than for a long time. Still or less are not many parties preferring to await bottom prices for goods before buying to any extent. In the meantime ships load very slowly notwithstanding the low rates of freight and limited amount of tonnage on berth. The U S ship Grace has finished loading and sailed. Her cargo comprises in part 80 tons coal, 791 bbls whisky, 300 bxs candles, [illegible] bxs soap, [illegible] cases powder, 1500 kegs nails, [illegible] home [illegible] and 600 cs canned goods.

Isthmus freights very quiet owing mainly to the [illegible] tariff which seems to have been put up for the purpose of forcing cargo on ships, so as to make [illegible] with the Pacific coasts. While [illegible] shippers can get special rates and much below tariff at the same time it is alleged that no discriminations are made by agents.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN

The Most Successful Physician on the Pacific Coast,

IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL

CHRONIC AND DIFFICULT DISEASES.

DR. BRENAN WILL GUARANTEE TO CURE any form of disease of the generative organs or private disease.

He has become an expert in the treatment of disease, weakness and derangement of the reproductive organs of both male and female, including diseases caused by the

FOLLIES OF YOUTH,

Such as SPERMATORRHEA or SEMINAL WEAKNESS or LOSS OF PERFECT VITALITY. Nearly two thirds of all the Chronic Diseases spring either directly or indirectly from some derangement of the sexual system, and yet this subject is neglected by the majority of the Medical Profession.

I know that persons who are unfortunate enough to be afflicted by any form of sexual disease have a delicacy in calling upon the proper physician in time, from a sense of modesty and sometimes from ignorance, and permit these diseases to exist until their constitutions become corrupted, their organization broken down and the hope of future happiness blighted, until death becomes a welcome messenger to carry them to the [illegible].

Everything strictly confidential and in all circumstances.

Lost manhood perfectly restored.

Catarrh, Bronchitis, Throat Diseases, Lung Diseases, Rheumatism, Kidney Complaint and all Diseases of the Eye and Ear, Stomach and Bladder he can cure without fail.

Consultation Free and a list of printed questions sent to those living at a distance who cannot consult him personally. Enclose postage stamp for list.

Office—No 63 First street, between Oak and Pine. Office Hours—From 10 to 12 A M, [illegible] 5 and 7 to 8 P M.

Catarrhal

Dr SCH[illegible]

Wei De Meyer's Treatise on Catarrh, explains the following important facts:

1 That Catarrhal Colds become a poisonous Infection, at first local and finally constitutional.

2 That being constitutional the infection is beyond the reach of mere local remedies.

3 That impurities in the nostrils are necessarily swallowed into the stomach and inhaled into the lungs, thus poisoning the Digestive, Respiratory and [illegible] urinary organs.

4 That Catarrhal virus follows the [illegible] mucous membrane and causes Deafness, Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhea, Bronchitis, Leucorrhoea and Consumption.

5 That Smokes, Douches, Inhalations and Insoluble Snuff cannot possibly remove Infectious inflammation from the organs named.

6 That an antidote for Catarrh must possess an inoculative affinity for, and the quality of being absorbed by, the purulent mucous wherever located.

Based upon these plain theories, Dr Wei De Meyer's Catarrh Cure has proved to be infallible. It not only relieves, it cures Catarrh at any stage. Home testimony:
